This Fort Macleod bungalow home has been beautifully renovated while maintaining its original mid-century charm! With five bedrooms, three bathrooms, a walk-out basement, a heated double detached garage, a wonderfully maintained corner lot, and beautiful living spaces throughout, this home is a must-see. Stepping inside, you'll enter into a long front foyer with closet storage. To one side is a stylish living room with a large bay window and a wood burning fireplace with brickwork and a tiled hearth. The L-shaped kitchen features metal countertops and tons of cupboard storage. The nearby cozy dining nook will be perfect for family get-togethers and restful weekend breakfasts. Downstairs, the basement features a walk-out exit providing access from the rec room to the backyard, perfect for summer entertaining. Two bedrooms, a full four-piece bath, and a laundry room create the ideal setting to make a guest room, hobby room, or whatever you can imagine. Outside, the rear yard is treed and landscaped with a central firepit and stonework accents. A side deck can be accessed from the home's side door or from the sidewalk. For storage, a side shed and rear double detached garage with heating and 220v wiring make the perfect spot for hobbyists or car enthusiasts.
