Welcome to 189 Hull Crescent NE, a spacious multi-level home tucked away on a quiet street in desirable Northeast Crescent Heights. Offering total peace of mind with a brand new roof installed in 2026, this property features over 1,140 square feet of functional above-grade living area alongside extensive lower-level space. Main floor living is anchored by a sunlit living room highlighted by a front bay window layout, flowing seamlessly into the adjoining kitchen and dedicated dining area. Upstairs, you will find a generous primary bedroom with double closets, a well-sized second bedroom, and a full four-piece bath. The lower level drastically expands your living footprint with a massive recreation room, a separate cozy family room, and a convenient three-piece bathroom—ideal for entertaining, a home theatre, or a play area. Rounding out the bottom level are two additional flex rooms with closets and a massive utility/laundry room offering incredible storage potential. Ideally located close to local parks, schools, and shopping, this property offers incredible versatility and layout potential ready for its next owners!
