Welcome to 4305 16 St SW, a premier brownstone style townhouse in the heart of Altadore. The gorgeous exterior is appointed with real brick and metal detailing for an air of sophistication and luxury. Right as you walk into the home you are greeted with luxury finishings, hardwood floors, and a spacious foyer with an attached mudroom. The double attached garage makes those cold winter mornings that much easier and provides ample room for all your summer toys as well. As you walk up the stairs you enter a spacious open concept living room and kitchen. The windows provide generous natural light to enjoy your morning coffee. With high end appliances, ample counter space and thoughtful cabinetry layouts, the kitchen is a chef's dream. Steps away is an oversized built in dining nook for entertaining or a quiet evening at home. The balcony off the kitchen features a barbeque and full Phantom Screens to block wind, enhance privacy, and retain heat during chilly evenings. The upper level features a large primary suite with attached ensuite and a walk-in closet. Luxury finished run throughout, with beautiful tile work, lighting fixtures, and built in cabinetry. The rest of the upper level is finished off with two additional bedrooms that could be set up either as living space or converted into an office. All rooms have closets and there is an additional full bathroom upstairs. Beyond the craftsmanship and elegance of the home, it is also in one of the most desirable pockets of Calgary, steps away from cafes, restaurants, and River Park. Truly combining the best of all worlds, this is a property that will complement and enhance a luxurious lifestyle. Book a showing today to come experience brownstone style living in Calgary!
